Intensive training at Floors-2-Go

FLOORS-2-GO has introduced a training initiative to further improve the product specialists in its retail stores.
 Developed by Carl Harris, product specialist for Floors-2-Go, the advanced status training scheme is a week long, intensive course with in-depth briefings ranging from manufacturing processes to suitability of use, supplier visits and selling techniques training.
 Staff members completing the course are required to pass an examination to achieve 'advanced' status.

 Carl comments: 'We are rolling out the training scheme over the next six months and hope to have at least 150 fully trained specialists throughout our stores by the end of the year. Staff who have already attended the course all comment positively, saying that it has proved invaluable on the sales floor.'
